St. Dominic Parish Reopening – Saturday, June 12

“Eucharist is the source and summit of Christian life” (CCC) Saint Dominic Parish is delighted to offer a special Mass schedule to celebrate this “reopening week-end.” It seems a long time since our mid-April church closing, so come rejoin your parish community. In concert with Ontario’s accelerated Step-One reopening, there will be four Masses at St. Dominic this week-end:

- 5 p.m. Saturday in the church (maximum capacity 15% or 75 souls) Note, this Mass will be recorded and streamed online at 10 a.m. Sunday morning.
- 7 p.m. Saturday – Outdoors behind the church in the parking area (If it’s raining, Mass will be moved indoors)
- 9 a.m. Sunday in church (maximum capacity 15% or 75 souls)
- 10 a.m. Sunday online Mass <http://saintdominic.ca> (This will be the last streamed Mass; all future Masses will be live at the church.)
- 11 a.m. Sunday – in the church (maximum capacity 15% or 75 souls)

Overflow seating – beyond the 75 limit – will be available in the parish centre areas.

Masses in the church follow established protocols for social distancing and are limited to 15% capacity of the church. Face masks are required.

Outdoor Mass

If you have been concerned about your personal health during the past months, the outdoor Mass is a great opportunity to attend Mass in a safer way. The Mass will take place behind the church with full audio thanks to a parishioner’s timely donation. Parking will be in the school yard with entrances on the west and east perimeters. Chairs will be set up with 2 meter spacing. Participants must wear face masks and are not permitted to remain in their cars. If possible, congregants are asked to stand during the consecration. Ministers of Holy Communion will distribute the Eucharist directly to people.
